KEPT HIS PATAMA WHITE.

By a Process Which Some People Be tieve la Especialty Applicable to Sinners.

The number of Panama or alleged Panama hats to be seen everywhere this season reminded an old gentleman from Boston of a story the other day, which he proceeded to tell to another man in the Pifth avenue hotel, holding his own genuine Panama in his hand:
"I suprose you have never heard of old

Panama in his hand:

"I suppose you have never heard of old Dr. Ellis down here," he said, relates the New York Tribune. "But a generation of twe ago he was a well-known liquite in Boston, being one of our famous Unitarian minister, a friend of many of the Transcendentalists. Be used always to wear a white Panama hat, which at that time was much more of a insury than I judge it be to-day. The same hat did him acroon after season, yet it never seemed to lose any of its fresh whiteness.

"One day a minister of the old persuasion, and very pronounced in his orthodoxy, asked Dr. Ellis how he kept his hat no white.

That is easy,' said the doctor, 'for it has been Calvinized."

"What? asked the other minister.
"How do you galvinize a hat?"
"I mid Calvinized," replied the Unitar-

But what do you mean by that?'
